

WASHING & GROOMING AREA Equipment

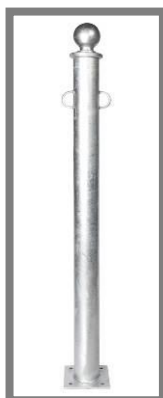

Washing and grooming areas are important components of every equestrian facility. The proper care for the horses is not only important for representative purposes but strengthens the bond between humans and horses, prevents diseases, supports healing processes and increases the performance of the horses. Therefore, appropriate facilities and adequate equipment is not only essential for the care itself but also for the workload.

Columbus offers a wide range of washing and grooming area equipment which ought to make your daily work more comfortable.

Tie posts and bars

For bolting on ground or to set in concrete

Water arm

Adjustable water arm including hose, gun and couplings

Examination crush

WASHING & GROOMING AREA Equipment

Rubber mats and rubber pavers, water-permeable and non-slippery

Rubber mats, waterproof and non-slippery

Rubber screed, waterproof and non-slippery

Coin device

Regulates the water consumption

Tankless water heater

electric

natural gas

propane

